

Corporate Give Back

Quick Start Guide

Whether you call it social responsibility, corporate citizenship, or corporate conscience, Casey Cares knows that opportunities for “Give Back” are important to your company and your employees. They are important to Casey Cares too.

We believe that providing companies easy, fun ways to engage employees alongside one another in giving and volunteering activities is key to creating lasting social change and reaping the benefits of employee engagement.

1

Host a team building fundraiser—Jeans Day, Chili Cook-Off, Tournament, Guest Bartending, or a Bowl-a-Thon

2

Underwrite a group event for critically ill children and their family members, provide manpower at the event

3

Provide a meal—organize a grocery gift card drive to help families in need

4

Collect and assemble items for our movie and pizza night kits

5

Enroll your company in our Holiday Giving Program, make a difference in children’s lives during the holiday season

6

Volunteer at one of our big fundraising events, get your group together for a fun team building experience

7
